the work in anticipation of sanction of the Board.

Doctor Campbell, the Marwari merchant and the Sub Magistrate have already been asked to select a good man for the appraiser's post at Jammalamadugu. Please ascertain from them, who has been selected and get him instructed in the method of keeping the prescribed registers. This, I submit, conveys sanction of the Collector for the appointment of the first appraiser, Syed Rasool.
The bill for December 1896 was cashed by the Deputy Collector Jammalamadugu Division.
Without the preaudit of this branch. That was objected to by this office and an

Note: The above order is clearly insufficient for a treasury officer to pass a bill. It is insufficient authority

but it does not convey sanction to pass the pay of Syed Rasool.

Note. This was during the time of Mr. R. P. - Theenathayalu Naidu, who who had now left the district. Even after the receipt of the objection

an alteration memo was sent to the Accountant-General on the 13th March 1897. with it orders for appointment were said to have been sent - vide reply to item No 136 in the objection Statement for February 1897. The bill for January 1897, received for precheck was passed on 21st February 1897, when Mr. R. P. Theenathayalu Naidu was in charge of the Treasury, with the remark that copies of orders should be attached to fair copies to be presented at the sub-treasury for encashment. The bill for February 1897 was passed on 10th March 1897, by the same officer. When the orders were asked to be attached to fair copy bill for January, 1897, it must have been seen whether the orders were obeyed or not, when the bill

bill received, paid. This does not seem to have been done, as the Accountant-General in his item no 138 of objection statement for February 1897, called for the orders. The Deputy Tahsildar, weavers Relief Jammalamadugu, sent in copies of Collectors' orders and Deputy Collectors' orders with his Arzi no 113 dated 1st August 1897. In it he said "the pay of Syed Rasool for June 1897, withheld for want of Collector's sanction may also be passed as the sanction for his entertain-ment is now submitted."

The bill for June 1897 was passed by me on the strength of the Arzi. When the sanction objection statement from the Accountant-General for February 1897, immediate steps were not taken to get sanction nor was the fact brought to the notice of the Collector.

of the Collector was said to be attached, I thought that the Deputy Collector's nomination too, would have been sent as in other cases. The Deputy Collector Jammalamadugu Division too, has countersigned the bill.

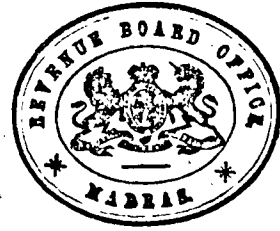

2. As regards R. Subba Rao, the submission of copies of orders was not insisted upon, as he was only on the inferior establishment and that, acting for a temporary, paid for a period of 10 days. The claim was admitted on the strength of the Deputy Collector's counter signature to the bill.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture),

Dated 7th May 1898.
No. 3037 Miscellaneous

READ The following letter from the Collector of Cuddapah Dist. No. 1861 of 98, dated 21st April 1898:—

With reference to Board's Proceedings dated 14 January 1898
No. 423 170 Miscellaneous, Settlement, 26-1-98 I have the honor to submit herewith a copy of the Treasury Deputy Collector's office note reference on current No. 1450 of 1897 dated 24 February 1898 with marginal notes.

2. The Treasury Deputy Collector takes Mr. Forbes' letter
No. 7290 of 96 dated 25 November Rev 1896

1896, to the Deputy Collector Jammalamadugu, as conveying sanction for the entertainment of Syed Nasool, 1st Appraiser.

It does not convey any such sanction. The Deputy Collector, Jammalamadugu, was asked to ascertain from Doctor Campbell and others who was selected for the appraiser's place and to give him necessary instructions as regards his work. This is no authority for the Treasury Deputy-Collector to admit the charge or to pass the bill.

3. The pay bills of the appraiser for January and February, 1897, were passed by the Account Branch without any orders of appointment and this was during during the time of M. R. Dy. P. Theenathayala Haideru Garu, who has now left the District. Even after the receipt of the Accountant-General's Objection statement for February 1897, immediate steps were not taken to obtain sanction for the appointment nor was the fact brought to the notice of the Collector. 4. As sanction of Government has now been obtained for the appointment of this individual and the rest of the establishment, nothing need be done in the matter.

Resolution

Recorded, with the remark that the Deputy Collector's explanation is unsatisfactory.
