Note for Mr Miranda

Please see under secretary's query on Cno 2992/88. & put up papers. The original of Financial Rs No 20 R. & 6.1.87 (from in Madras)

may probably give some information.

Mr Narayana Menon says that some report was received in 1883 or 1884. Please look up & put up the papers.

Mk

From enquiries made in the Finl. Dept., it appears that G.O. No. 20 R. & 6.1.87, which is likely to give some clue, was not received there. The indexes from 1890 to 1896 have been looked into but in vain. The papers are in 1884 & 1887.

With reference to the under secretary's query on Cno. 2992 of 1888. 'Why is it (Sim's park establish. ment) temporary,' it is submitted as follows: -

The establishment consists of an overseer on Rs 40 and a watchman on Rs 9 per mensem.

In 1887, Mr Lawson asked that the overseer who was then getting Rs 35 per mensem ^{might} be placed on the permanent establishment and that his pay might be raised to Rs 50. The Govt did not approve of the ~~approach~~ proposal to make the overseer's place permanent but raised his pay to Rs 40.

The salary ^{however} of the overseer and of the watchman ~~whom~~ whose entertainment was sanctioned in G.O. No 843 & 14.7.84 was ^{being} billed for from the Treasury as working charges of the Park till the year 1896 when the A.G. ~~for~~ objected to this procedure
