SUBJECT.

Submitting with remarks for the orders of Government letter from The Collector of Vizagapatam reporting on the death of the proprietor of Sanjeon and Gokwada estates and stating that the interference of the Court of Madras is unnecessary.

As regards para 3 of the B.P. plan see 6 of the Draft Bill filed B. The existing law does not seem to include the Court of Madras in such a case, but no doubt such interference would be unnecessary.

2. The Board agrees with the Collector that the estates may be left under the management of the surviving members of the family.
