Extract No ——— Dated 23rd May 1898.

From E. Scott Esquire,

Acting Collector of Nellore.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department,

Madras.

Sir,

With reference to the application of M Rly Rai Bahadur V. Jagannadha Row Dantulu garu, for 1 month and 27 days Privilege Leave, and to your Telegram of the 21st instant I have the honour to suggest, that M R Rly. K. Nara Simha Row Dantulu garu, Head Quarters Deputy Collector may be put in charge of the Treasury, during the absence of the former officer on leave, and that a Substitute may be sent to take charge of the Head Quarters Division. M R Rly K. Nara Simha Row Dantulu has already undergone one month's Treasury training under the Treasury Deputy Collector of Vizagapatam, and in his letter no 6989 of the 20th May 1898 the Accountant-General has desired me to make early arrangements to enable him

~~Deputy Collector~~ to Complete the Course of three months laid down in Government Order No. 34, Revenue of 23rd January 1889.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Acting Collector.

Note

The Collector of Nellore forwards thro' the Board of Revenue an application received by him from M.R.A.V. Jagannadha Rao Pantulu, his Treasury Deputy Collector, for privilege leave for one month and 27 days from or after the 23rd inst. Jagannadha Rao reports that he has taken no leave since August 1896 and that what he now applies for he requires urgently.

2. The Sub Collector, in forwarding the application, merely remarks that personally he has no objection to the leave being granted. He does not say whether a substitute will be required or not. Ordinarily the Collector has to arrange for the work of a Deputy Collector on short leave without the employment of a

Substitute

C 19/5/98.

R.C. 21/5/98.

[illegible] Nellore is one of the "affected" districts and it is very doubtful whether this can be managed now. Orders are therefore solicited as to (1) whether a reference on the point should be made to the Collector [redacted], or
(2) whether Jagannadha Rao may merely be informed that he cannot have the leave unless and until the season improves and the Collector can manage without the employment of a substitute or
(3) whether the leave may be granted and a substitute appointed.

3. If the leave is to be granted it is submitted that it is desirable to secure Jagannadha Rao to take it from or after the 2nd June when the services of G. Narayana Swami Aiyer (No. 20 in the acting list) [illegible] now acting in Madura and whose acting appointment terminates on that date

The applicant does not say why he required the leave. I would be inclined to tell him as at A in the ordinary note, or at any rate to defer it till 2 June or date on which Narayana Swami Ayer can relieve him.

Note.

A draft G.O. and memo are submitted for approval — the memo for circulation to the Board to Hon. the Governor. The G.O. may issue also.

II Letter from the Collector of Nellore ex no 1/acc dy 23rd may 1898 (C.no 3814)

Note

In the G.O. marked I above, the Govt sanctioned the grant of privilege leave for one month and 27 days to M.R.R. V. Jagannadha Rao, Treasury Deputy Collector, Nellore, and posted in his place M.R.R. G. Narayanaswami Aiyar, whose acting appointment in Madura would cease on the 2nd proximo. The G.O. in question has already issued but the minute of appointment prepared in accordance therewith (vide the note) is now in Circulation.

2. The Collector of Nellore now requests (vide receiving the above G.O.) that his Head Quarter Deputy Collector, M. Narasimha Rao Pantulu

Since read and put up

Pantulu may be placed in charge of the Nellore Treasury during Jagannadha Rau's absence on leave. Mr Scott says that Narasimha Rao has already undergone a month's Treasury training and that the Accountant General has asked him "to complete the course of three months" laid down in G.O. No. 34 Revs dy 23rd January 1899."

3. It is submitted that Narayanaswami Ayyar was posted to the charge of the Nellore Treasury not because he was specially qualified for it but because no other arrangement could conveniently be made. There seems to be therefore no objection to posting Narasimha Rao to the charge of the Treasury vice Jagannadha Rao and Narayana Swami Ayyar on "General duty" vice Narasimha Rao. To avoid double circulation and delay a Draft G.O and minute of appointment are herewith submitted. The issue of the minute already circulated will be withheld in case the present proposals meet with approval.

18.V.98

Sec.y

The change proposed is that Narayanaswami Ayyar should go to Nellore as Hd. Qr. Dy. Coll. instead of T. Dy. Coll. Narasimha Rao (Cttd Hd Qrs Ch Pantulu goes to Gooty as T. Dy. Coll. vice Jagannadha Rao on leave. There seems to be no objection to this arrangement.

Jagannadha Rao is originally posted to Nellore
