This is a Service grant. It was continued to the last holder, Abdur Rahman, under G.O. No. 581 dated 9th June 1892. Abdur Rahman put in a petition on 21st August 1897 praying that the office might be transferred to his brother's name, as he had no time to share for it from his private business. The Head Quarters Deputy Collector to whom the petition was sent for report stated that his request might be granted. As there was no mention of petitioner's brother in Column 7 of this ^{Office} report, No. 53-2, dated 18th May 1892 printed in G.O. No. 581 dated 9th June 1892, the Head Quarters Deputy Collector was ordered to make further enquiries. He reports that the petitioner had a brother in the year 1892, but no mention was made of him as no enquiry was made on that point and that the petitioner's brother, though only 12 years old, is capable of performing the duty of mucrim. I ~~do not~~ recommend that the grant be continued to Abdur Saffur, the brother of the last holder.

Collector of Trichinopoly No. 3334 of 1897 dated 7-3-98. (G.No. 2040 of 1898)

Note

In G.O. No. 181 dated 9th June 1892, an allowance of Rs 63 per mensem annum granted for performing service in ^{the} mosque at Volcondapuram, Trichinopoly district, was sanctioned in the name of one Abdur Rahman, the grandson of the previous holder Saiyid Ghouse. From the statement in column 8 of the tabular report now before Government it would appear that in August 1897, Abdur Rahman petitioned the Collector praying that as he had no time to spare for performing the service in the mosque, the allowance might be transferred in the name of his brother Abdur Saffur.

2. The Collector recommends that the transfer prayed for may be granted.
Abdur Saffur the proposed grantee though only 12 years of age is reported to be capable of performing the duty of muazzin (i.e) calling persons for prayer five times a day.

3. In E.M.C. No. 91 dated 20th January 1846, the Government raised the question whether the grant under consideration was a charitable allowance ~~and there-~~

~~more~~ capable of being resumed on the death of the grantee or was a service grant and therefore perpetual on condition of service. On a report from the Board the Government held in E.M.C. No. 1079 dated 31st October 1846 that the allowance was a service yeomiah. Being service grant, the yeomiah may, as recommended by the Collector be transferred to Abdur Saffur the brother of the present holder. The reason adduced for the transfer shows that the service is being kept up.

4. The allowance is paid by beriz deduction (please see No. 9 under the head "mosques" in the list on page 30 of G.O. No. 436 dated 28-4-1882)

A draft order is put up.
