12 South Canara Collector's Office, Mangalore, the 1st March 1898.

(D. Ananthaiah)

Read tabular report from the Collector of South Canara, Ref. No.14 dated 9th March 1898.

(C. No. 2103 of 1898).

Note.

In the current read above, the Collector of South Canara reports that Manjunatha Varamballi who was in receipt of an annual allowance of Rs. 3.- 8 - 9 (for the purpose of supplying the cattle of Brahmaver in the Udipi taluk with water) is now deceased, that he has transferred his right to the allowance by a registered will to Narasimha his grandson (daughter's son) aged 10 and has authorised Krishna Adiga, Narasimha's father, to receive the allowance during his son's minority. The Collector therefore recommends that

(i) that the allowance be registered in the name of Narasimha, the grandson of the deceased.

(ii) that Kristna Adiga, the father of Narasimha, be authorised to receive the allowance during the minority of his son.

2 The deceased does not appear to have left any male issue and th has therefore willed it over to his daughter's son. But it is not known why he has nominated the second son of his daughter and not the fisst son named Ramanna aged 16 (No. 7 in the list in Column 7 of the tabular report). This is not however, it is submitted, a question for the consideration of the Government as the grant is a service allowance and not a hereditary ~~allowance.~~ pension (Please see G. O. 464, dated 20th July 1895 in flag D. which another portion of the entire allowance of which the present allowance is also a part was sanctioned in favour of Badmanabha Bhatta a person apparently unconnected with the previous holder Rangai Varamballi, although the latter presumably became Hisson left a son ~~who~~ was not ~~however~~ in the place where the service was to be performed).

3. From the remark in Column 8 against items 6 and 7 of the list in G.O.5047 Misc, dated 14th Novdmber 1884, it would appear that the allowance in question is one of those which according to ~~the Govt~~ ~~in~~ para 9 of ~~its~~ Order No. 2164, dated 13th September 1867 ~~ordered should~~ are to be continued, the performance of the service being insisted upon.

4. The Collector reports in Column 8 of the tabular report that the service is being performed; his recommendations marked ~~in~~ (i) and (ii) in para 1 supra may therefore it is submitted be sanctioned The payment of the arrears for fasli 1306 may also be sanctioned as recommended by the Collector.

A draft order is put up accordingly.
