In the matter under C.O. no 1614 judicial dated 19-11-97 Mr. Hon. Sir Henry Pollock ^{enquired} ~~observed~~ whether the case was ~~always~~ always taken in the matter of wills when Lord servants had the power to interfere, and intimated the case of Pillapur and Viriagram. Mr. H. M. observed that in the case of the former estate the minor succeeded as the son, and that the will need not be proved, and the enquiry might be made whether any other beneficiaries had proved it. He suggested enquiry was made and the answer is the reply.

2. In the case of Viriagram the Advocate General was consulted whether the Guardian should apply for probate on behalf of the minor, and his opinion was communicated to the Court of Viriagram in C.O. no 1404 dated 21-3-98.

3. No action is called for except to record the same. Please see the draft order on ^{in the docket sheet} ~~the~~ ~~draft~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~court~~
