COLLECTOR OF

Anantapur.

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE COMMISSIONER OF

Land Revenue,

through the Accountant General, Fort St. George, Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the following for the orders of the Board and Government:-

My Treasury Deputy Collector Mr. D. Venkatasastri garu applied for two months and one day's privilege leave and also for the concession leave under G.O.

No. 982 Financial. In G.O. No. 963 dated 24-2-98 the Government sanctioned the former.

but deferred to pass orders on the admissibility of the latter leave. In the meantime Mr. R. D. Venkatasastri obtained a medical certificate for 3 months from the District surgeon and stayed away from office from the 10th February '98 and went away to Masulipatam, his native place on the 20th Idam. The Government telegraphed to me on 2nd April '98 informing me that Venkatasastri's application for special leave was inadmissible. As according to the Medical Certificate Venkatasastri required 3 months leave as against 2 months and 1 day granted to him, a telegram was sent to him on 3rd April '98 informing him of the orders of Government and asking him to wire if any extension was wanted. No reply having been received from him until 7th April '98, I addressed Government in my letter B.S.G. No. 305 dated 7th April '98 for for orders under article 257 A.C.S.R. The Government in its order No. 1632 dated 9th April '98 has directed that Venkatasastri should not be permitted to rejoin his appointment until he produces a certificate from the District surgeon as to his fitness to his duty. This order was received at Anantapur on 10th April '98 during the Easter holidays and there was no time to communicate it to D. Venkatasastri even by wire as he had to leave Masulipatam by that time. 2. Mr. R. D. Venkatasastri's leave of two months and one day would under ordinary circumstances have expired on the 10th April '98 and he should have joined his duty on the forenoon of the 11th current, but as the 11th and the 12th were Easter holidays

-time

7.1632c
7-1-98

1. he availed himself of them under article
2. of the Civil Service Regulations.
3. Mr. Venkatasastri arrived at Mankapur on the night of the 12th April. The Government order requiring him to appear before the District Surgeon was sent to him that same night by a special messenger to be delivered to him at the Railway Station immediately on the arrival of the train at 9-15 P.M. so that if he be so inclined he might go by the next 3-35 A.M. Mail to Guntakal where the District Surgeon's Office is at present located on account of Plague Inspections. Mr.
Venkatasastri could not take delivery of the same that night as it was too late. The order was delivered to him the next day (13th April 1918) morning.
Later

Later on in the forenoon of the same day, Mr. Venkatasastri reported himself to me and requested that as case he got a certificate of fitness from the District Surgeon, he should be considered to have returned to duty that day so that he may not lose his privilege leave allowances. I agreed to his proposal because I could not allow him to actually take charge in the face of the Government order. Mr.
Venkatasastri took the next morning (14th April 1918) Mail to Guntakal and appeared before the District Surgeon who after examining him declared him on the 15th April 1918 fit to return to duty and he accordingly took charge of the Treasury from the acting incumbent Mr. R. Rao Bahadur Mr. Arumugam Pillai, Avargal.

on the forenoon of the 16th April '98 under these circumstances I request orders as to the manner in which the allowances are to be readjusted for the two days 11th and 12th April '98 under article 254 of the Civil Service Regulations and for the payment to Mr Venkataswami of his pay for the 13th and 14th April '98 on which he was prevented from entering upon his duties in consequence of the orders of Government prohibiting him to return to his duty without a Medical Certificate.
5. D Venkataswami has a balance of 17 days service by 10th February the date on which he went on leave as explained in the accompanying slip. If for any reasons he cannot be allowed leave for the 11th and 12th (Easter Holidays) an an extension of 1 day's privilege leave to which he was entitled by the above service and a concession of 1 day for the hard work he had rendered in famine may be sanctioned as only 5 days are wanting to entitle him to another day's privilege leave.

I have the honour to be
Sir,

Your most obedient servant and granted 2 months and 1 day for absence from duty and 1 day for absence from duty in 1896

Forwarded. Mr. V. Venkata Sathi Garu was deputed for 2 months and 2 days privilege leave on the 10 February 1898. He can be granted privilege leave for 1 day in extension of 2 months and 1 day already granted to him. This will cover his absence up to 11 April 1898 inclusive. As he took charge of his duties on the forenoon of the 16 April 1898, he should be held to have overstayed his privilege leave by four days for which he is not entitled to any allowance.

note

The Collector of Anantapur, submits this to the General and the Board of Revenue the following case for the orders of Govt:-

In January last M.R. B Venkata Sastri, Treasury Deputy Collector, Anantapur produced a medical certificate of unfitness ^{for} duty for three months and in Feb^y he was granted privilege leave for 2 months and 1 day for which alone, it was reported, he was at the time eligible. This leave he availed of from the 10th Feb^y and therefore expired with the 10th of April last. As however the medical certificate declared that he would be unfit for duty for three months, the Govt in G.O. Misc n^o 1632 Rev dt 9th April 1898 directed that he should not be allowed to join his his appointment unless and until he produced a certificate of fitness for duty. This he did on the 15th of April and he took charge of his appointment in the forenoon of the next day. The question now is how the interval of ^{five} days between the 10th and the 16th April should be treated.

2. Of the five days above referred to the first two were gazetted holidays and the Collector is not sure how these should be treated. He states that there is one day's privilege ^{has} standing to Venkatasastri's ^{credit} and if necessary an additional day may also be allowed in consideration ^{him} of the farmine work done by ^{him} ~~the~~ ^(the Collector) ~~officer~~. He does not say how the remaining three days should be treated.

3. The Acet General considers that Venkatasastri's privilege leave may be extended by a single day but that "he should be held to have overstayed his privilege privilege leave by four days for which he is not entitled to any allowance". The Board points out that the Acet General's view must be accepted "unless the Govt is pleased to grant him special exemption".

4. It is not clear to what exemption the Board refers. The only concession that can be made in Venkatasastri's behalf is apparently to bring him under the special Farmine leave rules. A proposal to do this has already been negatived by Govt. A draft GO. expressing concurrence in the Acet's view and extending Venkatasastri's leave by one day is accordingly submitted for approval.
