My dear Mr Stokes

In reply to your D.O. $\frac{56}{27.5.98}$ asking whether Dr Coll: & Shanmugam Pillai can postpone his leave, without injury to his health, I write to say that I have seen the Dr Coll: - He is in poor health

B.P. L.R. No 1076 R. dy 27th Apr 1898 (Cur 3255 of 98)

Note

The Collector of Trichinopoly submits thro' the Board of Revenue an application from M.R.R. A. Shanmugasundaram Pillai, Deputy Collector, Musiri Division (shown however in the list as in charge of the Ariyalur Division) for two months'. privilege leave with effect from or after the 15th inst. Shanmugasundaram Pillai reports that during a period of 22½ years service he has taken only 3½ months' privilege leave and what he now applies for is required to recruit his failing health. Mr Shipley, the acting Collector, has apparently no objection to the grant of the leave but states that "no arrangement can be "made to get his work done by "the other Deputy Collectors in the "district".

2 The

2. The Subminister's of the papers for orders was held over pending the decision of the question of Shanmuga Sundaram Pillai's transfer from the Trichinopoly district where he has been employed ever since 2nd May 1893. It has since been decided that he should exchange places with M.R.R. K. Narayana Aiyar, General Duty Dy Collector, Anantapur. Narayana Aiyar however, is now on three months privilege leave, which expires on 12th July 1898 and the exchange above referred to will take effect only on the latter date. M.R.R. K. Vijayaraghavachari, Huzoor Sheristadar, Kurnool, (No 23 in the acting list) is now acting in the sixth grade vice Narayana Aiyar in Anantapur.

3. Orders are, in the above circumstances, (and more especially as the leave is not urgently required) solicited as to whether it will not be better to grant Shanmugasundaram Pillai vide penultimate para of Note in no 192 A

Pillai his leave with effect from the date on which he is relieved by Narayana Aiyar and to allow the acting arrangement now existing in Anantapur to continue.

Bmo 25.V.98 Sley

The arrangement at A had seem the best and Shanmuganundram Pillai might told to defer his leave till July.

Mlle 26.V.98

I think that the Collr should be asked to report whether Thandavan Sundaram Pillai can just now be spared having regard to the state of his health. In two months if he can the above arrangement might be carried out. MK.

Note

The reply received from Mr Shipley is submitted. From this it will be seen that M.R.R. Shanmugam Pillai is really ill and is in urgent need of the leave he applies for. It may it is submitted be therefore sanctioned.

The question now for consideration is whether a substitute should be sent for him to Trichinopoly. Mr Shipley has already reported that "no arrangement can be "made to get his work done by "the other Deputy Collectors in the "district". M.R.R. K. Narayana Ayyar who is now on leave and who is posted to Trichy vice M.R.R. Shanmuga sundaram Pillai will join his appointment on the 12th of July next. So that a substitute for Shanmugasundaram Pillai at Trichy will be required only for about a month. It is submitted that for that a short period necessary, the Collector

Collector must be able to make arrangements to carry on the work without a substitute, more especially as Trichinopoly is one of the districts to which an additional (Head Quarters) Deputy Collector has been assigned (G.O. no. 433 Rev: dy 29th May 1889) and as the Collector advances no reason whatever for his statement that he cannot make such arrangements. Orders are solicited

I think Shanmuga Sundram Pillai the 2nd in line should and the 3rd left to him his own arrangements.

Order misc No 2532 dy 16th June 98.

The grant of two months' privilege leave to MRR. A. Shanmugasundaram Pillai is sanctioned. The Collector will be requested to arrange for his relief at as early a date as possible.

2. MRR. K. Narayana Aiyar who has been posted to Trichinopoly in place of MRR. Shanmugasundaram Pillai will probably ~~is likely to~~ join ~~his appointment~~ ~~unless in the district~~ by about the 12th of July next. ~~The Board considers that~~ In the meantime ~~it should be possible~~, for the Collector will to make arrangements for carrying on MRR. Shanmugasundaram Pillai's work, ~~during his absence~~, without the employment of a Substitute.
