Letter from the A.G. No 1aeb/118
dt 18-6-98 (Rec 3705)

To Secretary

One M. Venkatasubbayya clerk in the Court of Wards service in the Godavari district was deputed to the Kurnool district during the late famine, for duty as a Circle Relief Inspector, and has since re-joined his appointment in the Court of Wards. The question is whether he is entitled to pay from Govt for the 13 days spent by him in transit to and from Kurnool. The Collr supported his claim and requested sanction for debiting the charge to 33 Famine Relief in the Kurnool dt. He also added that the clerk was so entitled to the travelling allowance both ways. The Board recommended the concession as a Special case, but the A.G. to whom reference was made on the subject remarked that there was no provision in the C.S.R for grant from public funds of the allowances in question, as the clerk did not hold hold even [illegible] appointment under Govt on the date of his transfer. Seeing that the Clerks Case was a hard one the Govt requested the Ag. to state whether the allowances could not ~~Cannot~~ be sanctioned under Art. 278 A (c) of the Civil Account Code. In reply the Ag. reports that the allowances Cannot be sanctioned under that article, which (according to its terms) refers only to irregular payments incorrectly made and cannot be used to sanction future payments. This interpretation does not appear to be supported by the wording of article 278(A); and the Fin Dept. on which in instance the second reference to the A.G. was made may be asked if it accepts the interpretation

NOTE FOR THE CS.

The case appears to be exactly on a case which article 278A ~~of~~ of the C. A Codes is intended to meet & it is not known where the Ag. got his present interpretation of that article from. Submitted that the allowances on may be based under article 278 A. ~~under~~ Sanctions under that article are reported to India in quarterly statements in which DA are prepared by the Ag. in which he can make his remarks (article 1343A C. A Codes). The sanction, if granted, should issue in Financial.
