Stamp Duty.

Stating that the decisions of the High Court on all cases of — referred to it under section 46 of the Indian Stamp Act I of 1879 need not in future be communicated to the Judicial Department, and requesting the Honourable the Judges of the High Court to favour Government with their opinion as to whether it is necessary that such decisions should continue to be communicated by the Board to District Judges.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Extract of a letter from W. S. MEYER, Esq., I.C.S., No. 39, dated 21st January 1898.

11. The decisions of the High Court on all cases of Stamp duty referred to it under section 46 of the Indian Stamp Act, I of 1879, are not only communicated by the Board of Revenue to Collectors, the Superintendent of Stamps and the Inspector-General of Registration, but also to the Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, and to all District Judges. Important decisions are published in the Indian Law Reports; and the rest need hardly, I submit, be communicated to the District Judges, or at any rate to Government except where they suggest the desirability of amending the existing Stamp Law.

ORDER—No. 888, Judicial, dated 7th June 1898.

The decisions of the High Court in cases of stamp duty need not in future be communicated to the Judicial Department. The Honourable the Judges of the High Court will be requested to be so good as to favour Government with their opinion as to whether it is necessary that such decisions should continue to be communicated by the Board to District Judges.
