PROVINCIAL CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION—1898-99.

No. 311.—One appointment in the Madras Provincial Civil Service will be offered for competition during the current year, and for this purpose an examination will be held in Madras in December 1898.

2. The examination will be conducted by a Board to be appointed by Government, consisting of a President, three Members and a Secretary. The Board will have the power of appointing additional examiners to assist in the examination, if necessary.

3. The examination will be open to all persons being British subjects or the subjects of Native Princes in alliance with Her Majesty who have qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Madras University, provided that they furnish satisfactory evidence as to age, physique, moral character and knowledge of a vernacular language, and succeed in passing a Medical Board as hereinafter laid down.

4. Applications for admission to the examination in the form prescribed must reach the Honourable Mr. G. H. Stuart, the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, the Adyar, Madras, not later than the 31st August next. Each candidate must forward with his application—

(i) a certificate that his age will be under 25 and over 20 years on the 30th November 1898;

Note.—This certificate should take the form either of a certified extract from an official register of births or of baptisms, or of a solemn declaration before a Magistrate accompanied by a copy and translation of the candidate's horoscope.

(ii) a certificate from a gazetted medical officer "that he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for Government service" and that he has been vaccinated or attacked with small-pox after reaching the age of ten years;

(iii) the following certificates to the effect that he has borne a good moral character:—

(1) a certificate from the head or heads of the college or colleges in which he studied for his degree of Bachelor of Arts; and

(2) (a) a certificate from the head or heads of the institution or institutions, if any, in which he continued his studies after taking such degree; or

(b) a certificate from his employers, if he has been employed since graduating; or

(c) if he has neither attended an educational institution nor been employed since taking his degree, a certificate from a responsible person who can certify to his conduct from personal knowledge;

(iv) satisfactory proof that he has either passed the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian civil officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service, or has graduated in a vernacular language.

5. No candidate will be registered unless he have previously paid a fee of 50 rupees. The fee should be paid into a Government treasury and the fee receipt must be forwarded with the application for admission to the examination. The fee of candidates who fail to pass the Medical Board will be returned to them.

6. Candidates whose certificates are satisfactory will be required to appear before a Medical Board to be assembled by the Surgeon-General at such time and place as Government may direct. Only such candidates as are certified by the Medical Board to be possessed of an exceptionally good physique and to be specially fitted for the active duties of a Revenue officer will be admitted to the examination.

7. Candidates who have passed the Medical Board will be informed of the fact by the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, and will be furnished in due course with a time-table of the examination.

PROVINCIAL CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION—1898-99.

No. 311.—One appointment in the Madras Provincial Civil Service will be offered for competition during the current year, and for this purpose an examination will be held in Madras in December 1898.

2. The examination will be conducted by a Board to be appointed by Government, consisting of a President, three Members and a Secretary. The Board will have the power of appointing additional examiners to assist in the examination, if necessary.

3. The examination will be open to all persons being British subjects or the subjects of Native Princes in alliance with Her Majesty who have qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Madras University, provided that they furnish satisfactory evidence as to age, physique, moral character and knowledge of a vernacular language, and succeed in passing a Medical Board as hereinafter laid down.

Applications for admission to the examination in the form prescribed must reach the Honourable Mr. G. H. Stuart, the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, the Adyar, Madras, not later than the 31st August next. Each candidate must forward with his application—

(i) a certificate that his age will be under 25 and over 20 years on the 30th November 1898;

Note.—This certificate should take the form either of a certified extract from an official register of births or of baptisms, or of a solemn declaration before a Magistrate accompanied by a copy and translation of the candidate's horoscope.

(ii) a certificate from a gazetted medical officer "that he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for Government service" and that he has been vaccinated or attacked with small-pox after reaching the age of ten years;

(iii) the following certificates to the effect that he has borne a good moral character :—

(1) a certificate from the head or heads of the college or colleges in which he studied for his degree of Bachelor of Arts; and

(2) (a) a certificate from the head or heads of the institution or institutions, if any, in which he continued his studies after taking such degree; or

(b) a certificate from his employers, if he has been employed since graduating; or

(c) if he has neither attended an educational institution nor been employed since taking his degree, a certificate from a responsible person who can certify to his conduct from personal knowledge;

(iv) satisfactory proof that he has either passed the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian civil officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service, or has graduated in a vernacular language.

5. No candidate will be registered unless he have previously paid a fee of 50 rupees. The fee should be paid into a Government treasury and the fee receipt must be forwarded with the application for admission to the examination. The fee of candidates who fail to pass the Medical Board will be returned to them.

6. Candidates whose certificates are satisfactory will be required to appear before a Medical Board to be assembled by the Surgeon-General at such time and place as Government may direct. Only such candidates as are certified by the Medical Board to be possessed of an exceptionally good physique and to be specially fitted for the active duties of a Revenue officer will be admitted to the examination.

7. Candidates who have passed the Medical Board will be informed of the fact by the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, and will be furnished in due course with a time-table of the examination.

PROVINCIAL CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION—1898-99.

No. 311.—One appointment in the Madras Provincial Civil Service will be offered for competition during the current year, and for this purpose an examination will be held in Madras in December 1898.

2. The examination will be conducted by a Board to be appointed by Government, consisting of a President, three Members and a Secretary. The Board will have the power of appointing additional examiners to assist in the examination, if necessary.

3. The examination will be open to all persons being British subjects or the subjects of Native Princes in alliance with Her Majesty who have qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Madras University, provided that they furnish satisfactory evidence as to age, physique, moral character and knowledge of a vernacular language, and succeed in passing a Medical Board as hereinafter laid down.

4. Applications for admission to the examination in the form prescribed must reach the Honourable Mr. G. H. Stuart, the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, the Adyar, Madras, not later than the 31st August next. Each candidate must forward with his application—

(i) a certificate that his age will be under 25 and over 20 years on the 30th November 1898;

Note.—This certificate should take the form either of a certified extract from an official register of births or of baptisms, or of a solemn declaration before a Magistrate accompanied by a copy and translation of the candidate's horoscope.

(ii) a certificate from a gazetted medical officer "that he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for Government service" and that he has been vaccinated or attacked with small-pox after reaching the age of ten years;

(iii) the following certificates to the effect that he has borne a good moral character:—

(1) a certificate from the head or heads of the college or colleges in which he studied for his degree of Bachelor of Arts; and

(2) (a) a certificate from the head or heads of the institution or institutions, if any, in which he continued his studies after taking such degree; or

(b) a certificate from his employers, if he has been employed since graduating; or

(c) if he has neither attended an educational institution nor been employed since taking his degree, a certificate from a responsible person who can certify to his conduct from personal knowledge;

(iv) satisfactory proof that he has either passed the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian civil officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service, or has graduated in a vernacular language.

5. No candidate will be registered unless he have previously paid a fee of 50 rupees. The fee should be paid into a Government treasury and the fee receipt must be forwarded with the application for admission to the examination. The fee of candidates who fail to pass the Medical Board will be returned to them.

6. Candidates whose certificates are satisfactory will be required to appear before a Medical Board to be assembled by the Surgeon-General at such time and place as Government may direct. Only such candidates as are certified by the Medical Board to be possessed of an exceptionally good physique and to be specially fitted for the active duties of a Revenue officer will be admitted to the examination.

7. Candidates who have passed the Medical Board will be informed of the fact by the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, and will be furnished in due course with a time-table of the examination.
