Note.

The Chief Commissioner of Central Provinces desires to be furnished with a copy of the Rules, if any, framed or in force under the Land Acquisition act I of 1894 in this Presidency. In section 55 of that act, Local Government is given power to make rules consistent with the act for the guidance of officers in all matters connected with its enforcement. No rules, however, appear to have been made by this Government under that section. vide page 251 of the List of Local Rules and orders made under enactments applying to the Madras Presidency.

The Standing orders Board's however embody the rules in force in this Presidency issued for the guidance of officers in matters connected with the working of the Act. Two of the Board's Standing orders appear to have been sent to the Govt of Central Provinces.

The appended draft is submitted for approval.
