Resolution.

Mr. J.W. Simpson, Acting Assistant Commissioner, Cuddalore Sub-Division, was relieved from duty on the afternoon of the 10th instant in anticipation of the grant of one year's furlough which was sanctioned in Government Order Mis. No. 2494, Revenue, dated 11th June 1898. Being unable to secure a passage to England by a steamer sailing from Madras earlier than the ^{2nd} ~~second~~ proximo, he applies for permission to count his furlough from the termination of his subsidiary leave - without forfeiture of such subsidiary leave, vide article 359 of the Civil Service Regulations. He is entitled to the minimum subsidiary leave of ten days which expires on the 20th instant. The Board begs to request that ~~the~~ Government will be pleased, under clause (b) of article 354 of the Civil Service Regulations, to allow him to count his furlough from - the following day, viz, the 21st instant, as he cannot embark for England before the 2nd proximo and as no extension of subsidiary leave is admissible in the circumstances of his case.
