arrangement no acting allowance for first thirty days admissible as he was lent to Cochin State for one year only up to 12th August India's sanction will be required for his employment beyond that date.

From the Resident in Travancore and Cochin, Ref. on G.No.1747, dated 7th June 1898:-

I beg leave to report that the Dewan of Cochin is sick of fever, and proposes with the permission of His Highness the Raja to take three months privilege leave. Provided he sends in, as arranged, the annual administration Report for 1072 (August 1896 to August 1897) and the Railway proposals before leaving I see no objection.

His Highness the Raja proposes to appoint Mr. Deputy Collector Swaminatha Iyer, now on special duty in Cochin State to act as Dewan without prejudice to his special duty and on the understanding that no claim to any expansion of special duty shall be based on this appointment on the ground that the extra work made it impossible to complete such duty within the specified time. These terms are acceptable to Mr. Swaminatha Aiyar.

The Dewan's pay is Rs. 1050 and his leave is granted by His Highness the Raja but under the Civil Service Regulations an acting allowance of Rs. 300 is proposed for Mr. Swaminatha Aiyar whose pay and allowances are given in Government Order No. 527 Political, dated 7th August 1897. The sanction of the Government of India is apparently required for this increase and I beg the favour of communication by telegram, as the Dewan wishes if possible to leave on the 12th instant. Post copy of telegraphic message sent you yesterday is annexed.
