To Under Secretary with 2

In their telegram of the 1st instant stitched with D.O. 2927 12-7-98 the Famine Commission noticed among other things that no expression of the views of this Govt on the Famine Commissn report had been received by them. It is possible that the Govt of India will hand over to the Commission the type-written copy of the review (Johns. 382-382, 9-7-98 sent already. It is, however submitted that, with reference to their telegram, 6 copies of the review may be sent to the Commissn as soon as they are ready. A draft letter advising the despatch of the review is accordingly put up.

It is also submitted that this letter may issue from Ootacamund, and the Madras office instructed by mire to despatch tomorrow

6 clean copies of the enclosure to the Commission. The corrected proof returned yesterday
would reach the Press tomorrow.
