I have the honour to inform you that the Government of India have decided (vide Director-General of Military Works in India letter No. 280-C., dated 28th February 1898, to the Superintending Engineer, Madras Command, Military Works) that the military zone of Fort St. George, Madras, is to run as indicated in the tracing herewith forwarded.

2. I send this communication first, for general information; second, because the military zone must be kept clear for military purposes and this point might possibly affect your dealing with the land in question.
