Dear Sir

I believe you know remember the request I made upon my return when I had the honour of paying my respects to you last time in Madras. Ever since I assume the responsible duties of Council in the Madras State I have the most very anxious and since we little time for studying for the Revenue Higher Examination which is the only one necessary to complete the Deputy Collector's tests.

I have passed Criminal and Account and Training required had been into Higher Grades, Precise, Equitation successfully got through by me in Telugu required for the appointment of a Deputy Collector and we also undergo necessary

Training in Survey, Estimating and Plan Drawing and in Treasury.

I humbly request that you will be pleased to place the matter before His Excellency the Governor with a view to obtain for me an extension of Probation by one year. Having taken Extraordinary leave without allowances for 8 months the period I am persuaded to think, will naturally be excluded from two years' probation. My appointment as a Councillor granted to me in December 1896. has directly interfered with my

I may also be permitted to add that as the major portion of the tests I have successfully got through by me

I may be granted an exemption from passing the only test viz

Revenue Higher. If His Excellency is pleased to grant this concession my confirmation as a Deputy Collector will follow as a matter of course and in this case the request for extension of the period of Probation one year is not necessary as it is understood that the period of Probation is meant for enabling one to pass the necessary tests and for undergoing several training.

My appointment as a Councillor completing the tests, or if I had continued at Chittoor, I would have passed the only Examination Revenue Higher and might have expected my confirmation in the usual course.

Begging to be excused for the trouble I give you in this.

I remain

Dear Sir

Your obedient

V. R. Durairaja

Councillor, Pudukkottai

the work very onerous and give

My dear Sir, wishes me to pass the enclosed on to you for disposal in the ordinary way. It seems to his Excellency that the request to have the period of probation extended is not, under the circumstances, a very unreasonable one.

Yours sincerely,

M.R.B. Vijayaraghunatha Durai Rajah, who was recently granted 8 months' leave without allowances and permitted to take up the Comptroller's appointment in Pudukkottai requests that in the peculiar circumstances of his case

(1) his probationary period may be extended by one year

(2) he may be exempted from passing the Revenue Higher the only test that he has yet to pass to complete the tests prescribed for Deputy Collectors.
The P.S. & says that H.E. does not consider the first request to be "very unreasonable"

2. M.R.B. Durai Rajah was appointed in Decr. 1896 as Deputy Collector on probation for two years and subject to the following two conditions, viz.,

(i) that he should pass the "verbal" and other tests prescribed for the post of Dep. Collector before the expiration of the prob. period" and

(ii) that he gave "Satisfaction" in the performance of his duties during the term of probation.

Orders are solicited as to whether either or both of his present requests should be complied with.

26.6.58

Secy

If he is exempted from passing the Rev Higher there seems no reason why he should not be confirmed at the expiry of his present probationary period or at all events as soon as he returns from his duty in Padrikota. But, it is submitted that there seems to be no reason why he should be exempted from passing the Revenue Higher.

His test ensures that an officer has paid some study to the principles of our revenue system & it is submitted, that even a considerable familiarity with revenue practice does not make up for ignorance of the principles on which that practice is founded.

If he is not exempted from passing his Rev Higher his probationary period may be extended till the results of the 1899 exams are out.

Under the exceptional circumstances of the case an extension of

H.H.

The cases of the Padrikota Durai Rajah are very exceptional, & the extension for an application applied for may be unduly granted. But

I think he should be excused
