OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE),

Madras, 14th July 1898.

READ— Letter from E. Scott Esquire, Asg. Collector of Vellore, Ref. n^o 412+800 dated 3rd July 1898
for Reference No. 771 dated 14th July 1898.

Submitted to Government.

2. Mr. E. H. Sargent applied for a lease to mine for mica over Survey n^o 58 measuring 32.82 acres in the reserved forest of Prabhavarijathanam for a period of two years. The collector recommended the grant of only 26.25 acres of the plot for the reason that the remaining area was within 350 links of a cart track. The Board supported the collector's recommendation and Govt. sanctioned it (vide G.O. 979 Mis d/25.2.98).
The collector now reports that the cart track which is not in use is largely overgrown with prickly pear, and that the entire block applied for by Mr. Sargent may, with advantage, be granted. The Board sees no no objection to this being done, as it is further reported that the best deposit of mica lies next to the road.
