I do not think anything would be gained by calling on the Col. to report & on the other hand other ryots might be encouraged to come direct to Govt. with their complaints about irrigation & in the way they abound.

I happen to know all the ~~pro~~ six villages referred to in the telegram including Alwar Kurichi & Adachani. The irrigation of these ^{neighbouring} villages depends on the river Gabranadi (not Gabranadi!) & its tributaries the Varanadi & Ramnadi & is very complicated.

The Adachani bank is a large one with extensive irrigation dependent on it & the Taluk is no doubt endeavouring to get it filled. If his order is wrong the ryots know perfectly well they can appeal to the Col.

The telegram may be lodged I think.

Please see P.S. to note.

These quarrels & disputes about the distribution of water in the Amhasanudram & other Taluqs on the Jambharni are of "rarely annuals": in similar cases it has not been the practice to ask the J.M. to report; since it would lead to perpetual appeals to Govt. about matters which can only be dealt with locally.

It is quite certain they have asked the J.M. to interfere - if not they ought to have done, if the Taluk has acted improperly; & there is a regular course of appeal from the J.M. to the Board in the first instance & then to Govt. To ask the J.M. to report direct would be to dislocate this administrative chain.
