Secretary.

The payment of a daily allowance of one fanam was granted by the Nam in 1753 to one Shaikh Moirani, the paternal uncle of the present holder Abdool Reza, for lighting the mosque in his village, Timmangalam taluk, Madras district, for offering prayers and for subsistence. (vide Summud in B.O. No 76.77 of 18.7.1836). In 1833 the Board of Revenue sanctioned the continuance of the allowance in the name of Abdool Reza (B.O. No 76.77 of 18.7.1836). The payment of the allowance appears to be made by means of being deducted from item 2 in page 19 of L.O. 1625 of 8.07 and item 12 in page 33 of L.O. 430 of 20.4.82.

In the tabular report submitted with the current read above, the Collector reports that the present Zamindar who is 87 years old has two sons named (1) Amam-ul-Sahib aged 40 & (2) A.

25/5/98

(son of No. 11)

Paris-ul Sahrif Sahib, 18 years old, that is eldest son is employed in the D.P.
Press office, Madura on Rs 12 per month and that the other two are living with a yeomadar without any independent means of livelihood. Being unable to discharge the duties connected with Mousjid properly on account of his tender age, the present holder requests that the yeomiah may be registered the names of his younger son and grandson, as the eldest son is employed in the District Press, Madura, and could not therefore attend to duties. The Collector states that the services are properly performed and recommends the transfer of the allowance as prayed for by the yeomadar.

The Collector's recommendation may be approved. As the eldest son is so occupied as to prevent him accordingly put up on the docket. performing the service
