Note.

In connection with the enquiry into the nature of the services on account of which the permanent allowances have been made, it was reported that the Mokkhar village of Burrada Kancharam in the Chippurapalle taluk, Vizagapatnam District, was mortgaged with possession and that its proceeds were not appropriated towards Darga and Am-i-Shariff service the purpose for which it was originally granted. The Board therefore recommended that the inamdar might be warned that the inam would be resumed if the ^{con-}siderations of the grant are not duly fulfilled. The Board's suggestion was approved in G.O. 354 Pol. of 4.6.96. As the conditions of the grant were only very partially fulfilled even after the warning apparently owing to the fact that the inam had been alienated by mortgage and that the inamdar
