Summed in without interest or Deed of Permanent Property, granted by the Right Honourable the Governor and Council of Ind. St. George, on behalf of the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India in Council.

To Chandrasekhara Nayaminadu, Zemindar of Bungari, North Arcot District.

Whereas for a long series of years your Estate of Bungari, consisting of the villages hereinafter named, has been held on a terminable tenure by yourself and your predecessors, and whereas the Govt. have now determined to confer on you a permanent property in it, it is hereby declared that the assessment of your Estate has been fixed from the commencement of July 1275 at the annual sum of Rs 11,615-0-0 which said sum of Rs 11,615-0-0 shall be, and is hereby accordingly declared by this Summad to be the permanent annual jumma of your Estate, payable in the current Coin of the realm, ⁱⁿ fixed monthly instalments, instalments, agreeably to the separate Receipts signed by you.

2. This permanent arrangement of the land tax on your Estate is exclusive of the revenue derived from the manufacture and sale ~~and~~ salt and saltpetre; Exclusive of the Tonnage, ~~or~~ duties of every description, whether by sea or land, the entire administration of which the Govt. reserves to itself; Exclusive of the Stewards' or tax on the sale of spirituous liquors ^{and} intoxicating drugs; Exclusive of the Excise which is ~~and~~ may be levied on commodities or articles of consumption; Exclusive of all taxes, personal & professional, as well as of those from markets, fairs and Bazaars; Exclusive of Lathieraj lands (lands exempt from the payment of public revenue) and of all other alienated lands paying a small quitrent (which quitrent, manageable by you, is included in the price of your Estate); and exclusive of all lands and rooms heretofore appropriated to the support of Village and Police Establishments. The Govt. reserves to itself the entire exercise of its discretion in continuing or abolishing, temporarily or pursuant to, the articles of revenue included, according to the custom and practice of the Country, under the several heads above stated.

3 You shall regularly pay in all repay the amount of the permanent assessment above-fixed; the remissions which may have occasionally been granted according to the custom of the country on account of drought, inundation, or other calamity of the season shall now cease and never be revived, and if you should fail to discharge your engagements, your estate and your personal property shall be answerable for the consequence of such failure

4. In the event of your failure, and as often as you shall fail to pay the amount of your permanent assessments according to the monthly instalments set forth in your Wistbundy heretofore referred to, all arrears of revenue due by you shall be recoverable under and in the manner provided for the recovery of arrears of revenue due by defaulters not holding a Sumoud-i-illikhat Estimar or other similar instrument, by Madras Act No. Two of 1864, Entitled an Act to

Counselor at Law

Consolidate the Laws for the recovery of arrears of Revenue in the Moors Provided, ~~or~~ by any Law which may be hereafter enacted for the same purpose.

6. You shall be at free liberty to transfer, without the previous consent of Government or of any other authority, to ~~whomever~~ ^{whomever} you may think proper, either by sale, gift, or otherwise, your proprietary right in the whole or in any part of your estate; such transfers of your land shall be valid and recognized by the Courts and Officers of Government, provided they shall not be repugnant to the Mahomedan or the Hindu Law, or to the Regulations of the British Government, but unless such sale, gift, or transfer shall have been regularly registered at the office of the Collector, and unless the public assessment shall have been previously determined and fixed on such separated portions of your estate by the Collector, such sale, gift, or transfer shall be of no legal force or effect, nor shall such transactions exonerate you from the payment of any part of the public land tax assessed on your entire estate previously to such transfer, but but your whole estate shall continue to be answerable for the total land tax, in the same manner as if no such transaction had occurred.

6. In the event of the sale of any part of your estate for the liquidation of arrears of the assessment, or in satisfaction of the decree of a Court of judicature, or in the event of the transfer of any part of your estate by gift, sale, or otherwise, you shall furnish the Collector with true and correct accounts of your entire estate and of the portion of your estate to be separated for a period not less than the three years preceding such sale or transfer, in order that the due proportion of the public revenue may be fixed thereon.
The assessment to be settled on the separated parts of your land shall always bear the same proportion to the actual produce of the separated portion as the total permanent ~~income~~ on your estate bears to the actual produce of the whole estate; so that if the ~~assessment~~ total furnished by you should be correct, no partial assessment can happen, nor any increase of the fixed ~~income~~ be ever made under whatever changes or improvements of your interests or your pleasure pleasure may lead you to introduce into the Estate.

7. In order that you may at all times be enabled to comply with the 6. provisions of the 6th Article of this Sumud, by which you are bound to furnish true and correct accounts of your estate when required by the Collector, you shall support the regular and established number of Curnams ⁱⁿ the several villages of your estate. The Curnams shall be appointed from time to time by you, and shall obey all regular orders issued by your authority, but they shall not be liable to be removed from their office, except by the sentence of a Court of Judicature or the order of an officer of Govt., as may be determined by law. In the event of your having or of your under-farmers, tenants, or agents having cause of complaint against the Curnam of any village for a breach of duty, ^{you} shall be at liberty to institute suit, at your own cost, or suit in any Court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of bringing such Curnam to trial and punishment; but in the event of your dispossessing a Curnam of his office without such previous previous regular process, or without the order of a competent officer of Govt. you shall be liable to make such satisfaction for the injury as any Court of competent jurisdiction may deeree. Where a Curnam may be dismissed from his office by the sentence of a Court of judicature, or the order of an officer of Govt., you shall, in the first instance, select a successor from the family of the last incumbent, provided any member of that family shall be capable of the duty of Curnam; but if no member of it shall be capable of discharging that duty you shall exercise your discretion in the appointment of a proper person. The name of the person appointed to succeed shall be reported to the Collector.

8 You shall aid and assist the officers of Government in apprehending and securing offenders of all descriptions; and you shall inquire and give notice to the Magistrates of all robbers or disturbers of the public peace who may be found or who may seek refuge in your estate.

9 You shall enter into engagements with your ryots for a rent either in money or in kind, and shall, within a reasonable time, grant to each ryot a puttah or corole, clearly defining the amount to be paid by him, and explaining every condition of the engagement, and you shall grant, or cause to be granted, regular receipts to the ryots for all discharges in money or in kind made by them to you or for your account. If after the expiration of a reasonable period of time from the execution of your Caboolat, you shall neglect or shall refuse to comply with the demand of your under-farmers or ryots, for the puttahs and receipts above-mentioned, you shall be liable to be sued in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and you shall also be liable to such damages as may be decreed by such Court to the Complainant.

10 Continuing to conform to the above stipulations to render allegiance to the British Government, and to obey all the Laws and Regulations which are now and may be hereafter in force in British India, you are hereby authorized and empowered to hold in perpetuity to your heirs, successors, and assigns at the permanent assessment herein named the Estate of Bungari.
