Reference No. 928 dated 19th August 1898.

Submitted, through the Accountant-General, for the orders of Government.

2. In the letter read above, the Collector of Tanjore reports that the post of Local Fund Head Accountant on Rs. 40½ attached to his district is vacant but that there is no one in the higher grades of the Local Fund Department fit for promotion to the appointment which is an important and responsible one requiring an experienced, efficient and trustworthy hand. The Collector accordingly recommends that sanction may be accorded for the transfer of the services of M. Sundaresam Pillai, 1st Asst. audit Clerk on Rs. 30 in his office to the Local Fund Department. The Board requests that the proposed transfer be sanctioned as a special case under G.O. 2650 Local and Munl. dated 12th Nov. 1892.

FOR ORDERS.

The Collector of Tanjore reports that the post of Local Fund Head Accountant on Rs 40 ^{has fallen vacant} attached to his district ~~is~~ and that as there ~~is~~ no one in the higher grades of the Local Fund Department fit for promotion to that responsible appointment requiring an experienced, efficient and trustworthy hand, he has appointed Mr. Sundaresam Pillai, 1st Assistant audit clerk on Rs 30 in his office, to act for that place. The Collector accordingly proposes that his services may be transferred to the Local Fund Department, and the Board requests that the proposed transfer be sanctioned as a special case. The Accountant-General remarks that the appointment in question
