FOR ORDERS.

To Secy.

* representing an income between Rs 1000 and Rs 1250

The petitioner was assessed to income tax by the Tahsildar of Tenkasi on an income of Rs 1260, and his revision petition to the Dy. Collector was rejected on the ground that he had paid a tax of Rs 20* from 1892, and that a capital, which yielded Rs 1060 in that year, may be expected to yield Rs 1260, if not more, in 1897-98. Against this order the petitioner now appeals to Govt, alleging that he has no taxable income. He has not urged any valid ground to induce Govt to ^{question the correctness} reject the concurrent decision of two local officers on a question of fact.
