RESOLUTION.

The rule which has hitherto regulated the position of officers of the Imperial Forest Service on obtaining promotion after passing the prescribed examinations is contained in the first sentence of section 39 of the Forest Department Code, and is to the effect that promotions up to and including the 4th grade of Deputy Conservators shall, ceteris paribus, be regulated according to priority in passing the prescribed examinations, but that when once in that grade officers should, as a general rule, be arranged on their respective provincial lists in the order of their seniority in the service.

2. The circumstances of several cases which have come under the notice of the Government of India since the rule in section 39 of the Forest Code came into operation in 1886 tend, however, to show that the rule has not worked altogether equitably—more especially where the conditions for the examination of officers serving in different provinces, but who happen to be borne on one and the same graded list, are not exactly equal. The Government of India consider, therefore, that the penalty practically imposed by section 39 is unduly severe. They have accordingly decided to amend the section so as to restrict an officer, who may not have passed the prescribed examinations, from regaining his original standing in the service only until such time as he obtains permanent promotion to the 1st grade of Assistant Conservators, when he will regain his original position in the service. The words "1st grade of Assistant Conservators" will now be substituted for "4th grade of Deputy Conservators" in the second line of section 39 of the Forest Department Code.
