TO

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department

Madras.

Dated Calcutta, August 30 1898.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that with the approval of the Government of India Mr. Holland, Deputy Superintendent in this Department and Dr. Walker Assistant Superintendent, have been posted to Madras during the coming field season to study the mineral mica in the field. They will start work in the Nellore District about the 15th of November next.

2. After completion of a part of the Nellore District, and about the middle of December, Mr. Holland will start for Bengal, leaving Dr. Walker to carry on the work.

3. I would ask that you will be good enough to instruct the District officers concerned to render Messrs. Holland and Walker every assistance in the furtherance of their work.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. A. Friedrichs
