Through

SIR,

The Accountant General, Madras

I have the honour to forward herewith, for favour of sanction, the application of Mr. P. R. S. Subbaraya Aiyar, Esq., Revenue, Kallakurichi, Treasury, Deputy Collector of this district, for privilege leave for two months and ten days under Art. 291 of the C. S. Regulations, to be availed of in continuation of the ensuing Christmas holidays. The most convenient arrangement would be for Mr. R. S. Sengh to take charge of the Treasury, he will probably join sometime next month. This would leave Mr. Wallace still acting as Head Assistant Collector which is, at present, very desirable in the interest of District Administration. If this cannot be sanctioned and Mr. Wallace must revert as Assistant Collector, the present Head Quarters Deputy Collector, Muhammad Azizuddin Sahib, will be relieved and will be available for Treasury duty.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant.
