ENCLOSURES.

FROM H. C. D. Harding, Esquire
Collector of Cuddapah

To THE Secretary to Government, Revenue Department

SIR,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government the Petition of one Krishnamma Naidu, a Political Pens of Gudlapalem of Vayalpad Taluq 2. In B.P.No 1226 dated 10th May 1879, pension of Rs 40-4-4 per mensem was sanctioned in favour of the said Krishnamma Naidu for his support that of his family which consisted of 4 souls.
3. Krishnamma Naidu was reported not properly maintaining his fam 4. Subbalapati Naidu and 6 pe where related to Krishnamma Naiden in the following manner on this ground presented a petition in October 1897 requesting the apportionment of the allowance to them.

1) Seshachalapathi Naidu (son by his first wife Bojjamma Naikurahu)

2) Pape Naidu } Sons by his wife —
3) Nagamallappa Naidu } Munemmah Naikenahu

4) Nagamallamma — Daughter by his wife Mallammah.

5) Bojjamma Naikurahu (wife)

6) Munemma Naikurahu (wife)

7) Akkamma Naikurahu (Step-mother).

5. My predecessor ordered in Disposal No 377 of 98 under Board's Standing Order
Rev
No 136, that out of Rs 40-0-11, Rs 22-0-11 should be paid to the petitioners and that the balance Rs 18 should be equally divided between the Javerjidar and his paternal uncle Bommi Naidu, by virtue of an agreement between them. The petitioners were also ordered to select a represent--tive to receive payment of the amount on their behalf.

6. They and Bommi Naidu accordingly selected one Veerappa Naidu to receive payment on their behalf.

7. It was then brought to my notice that Krishnamma Naidu wilfully avoided appearing at the Sub Treasury to receive payment of the allowance and thereby made it impossible for the Tahsildar to carry out the orders. I therefore directed the Tahsildar of Vayalpad to give a summons to Krishnamma Naidu to appear and receive his allowance.
This the Tahsildar did. The Javerjidar acknowledged the receipt of summons served on him on the 30th August 1898 to appear before the Tahsildar on the September 1898 but did not do so either on that date or any subsequent though he was within 4 miles of Kalikiri of the same Taluq which is Connected with the Tahsildar's Kasba station — (Vayalpad) by Railway.

8th The petitioners again presented a petition on the 17th September 98 Complaining that Krishnamma Naidu Tavarjidar did not appear to — receive the allowance with a view merely to inconvenience them and that thereby they — some of them being minors and other Gosha — females — were left without means of subsistence for the last 11 months.

9th I find that the Tavarjidar has been wilfully evading to appear the Treasury in order to prevent possibility of any payment being being made to the petitioners. To put an end to this trouble and inconvenience I have the honour to recommend that separate orders may be issued for the payment of Rs 22-4-11 on behalf of the 7 petitioners and Rs 9 on behalf of Bommi Naidu, to P. Veerappa Naick, their Chosen representative, without the intervention of the Tavarjidar — Krishnamma Naidu who has wilfully neglected to support them. This Office

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Current No. 7555 of 98.

From The Collector of Cuddapah

Dated 22nd October 189 8.

FOR ORDERS.

In the Currents read above the Collector of Cuddapah brings to the notice of Government the conduct of one Political pensioner Krishnama Nayudu and requests orders as to the distribution of the pension. The facts of the case are given in para 2 of the note under G.O. 1208 dated 24th August 1898 and are briefly as follows.

An allowance of Rs. 480-11-3 per annum granted by Government on 12th July 1801 to one Papu. On resumption of privileges enjoyed by him, was regis- in 1878 in the name of his grandson Krishnama. In October 1897, some members of his family—two sons, one daughter two wives and one step-mother—com- to the Collector that the pen- had not maintained them for two or three years and requested that the allowance might be divided.

In virtue of an agreement entered into in 1892 between Krishnama Nayudu and his uncle Bommi Nayudu, the Caller received Rs 10 per mensem of the allowance. The Collector, however, in his Proceedings of 27th January 1898 directed that a sum of Rs 22-0-11 should be paid, on behalf of the seven Complainants, to one of them to be nominated by them and that the remaining sum of Rs 18-0-0 should be paid to Krishnama Nayudu and his uncle to be divided equally between the two.

Para 3 of the Coltr's Proceedings of 27-1-98

Para 5 of the Proceedings

2 The Collector, however, now reports that one Veerappa Nayudu was selected by the complainants and Bommi Nayudu but that Krishnama Nayudu has wilfully avoided appearing at the Sub Treasury to receive payment of the allowance and thus made it impossible for the Tahsildar to carry out the orders. It further appears that Krishnama Nayudu did appear before the Tahsildar when a summons was duly served on him.

3. The complainants have again presented a petition to the Collector on 14th September 1898 representing that Krishnama Nayudu did not appear to receive the allowance with a view merely to inconvenience them and that thereby they - some of them minors & others of such persons were left without means of subsistence for the last eleven months. The Collector finds that the petitioner has been wilfully evading to appear [illegible] prevent the possibility of any payment being made to the petitioners and to put an end to the trouble and inconvenience recommends that X orders may be issued for the payment of Rs 22-0-11 on behalf of the 7 petitioners and Rs 9 on behalf of Bommi Nayudu & P. Veerappa Nayudu, their representative.

4 Submitted that, in the circumstances, the Collector commendation may be communicated.
