No. 1711 No. 1 dated 1-7-'98 sanctioning the cost of acquisition amounting to Rs 116-10-0 are enclosed.

Copy of this office letter Ref. on Enq. 2128 of 97 27-10-97
to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue.

The village Site of Kadati, a village in Harpan halli Taluq, consists of 12 acres. The Tahsildar reports that it is fully occupied and that the portion occupied by Madigas is so low that it gets inundated whenever the River Jungabhadra is in flood. These people therefore suffer loss almost every year, and the Tahsildar and Divisional Officer propose to remove them to a higher level. There being no waste land available, Sug. 234 which is held on patta has been selected.
About 50 houses are to be constructed on the new Site and the Acquisition of 2 acres of this land is considered necessary.
The value of the land is estimated at Rs 50 an acre and there are trees of the value of Rs 10-0-0 on it. If the allowance of 15 per cent on account of compulsory acquisition is added, the total cost will be Rs 116-10-0.
As Bellary is one of the districts in which it is customary for Government to provide Catala

Village Sites, I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to sanction the acquisition of the land at the cost of Government and to allot a sum of Rs 116-10-0 for the purpose from Savings under Land Revenue. On receipt of this sanction, the necessary steps will be taken under the Land Acquisition Act.

Abstract of deposition given by the owner of the land (Vijjappa Basappa) before the Revenue Inspector

He states that the land is in the enjoyment of his divided brother and himself. He is not willing to part with the land for house sites as he has not got other lands to live on. He is sure that his divided brother will not consent to part with the land. He does not like an award of other lands in exchange by Government as they are not fit for cultivation

Abstract of Chenna Basappa's (brother of the owner of the land) deposition:-

He reiterates his brother's statement and says that he is not willing to part with the land for the reasons adduced by his brother.
