FOR ORDERS.

To Under Secy:-

In the letter read above the Govt of India states that the subject chosen for the next Industrial monograph (for the year 1898-99) is Silk fabrics. The present is the sixth monograph of the kind asked for by the Govt of India. The previous five monographs related to the following subjects and were prepared by the Officers noted below:-

prepare the monograph on woollen fabrics but as it was reported that he could not undertake the work owing to illness the work was entrusted to Mr Thurston on Mr Thurston's monograph on 'Woollen fabrics' has been received and is separately submitted with a draft.

3. The question now for consideration is to whom should the duty of preparing a monograph on "Silk fabrics" be entrusted, whether to the Offg Supt. School of Arts or to Mr Thurston.

Orders are requested.
(Mr Lessing please explain why you kept this over such a week.)

Lessing There is no Offg Supt of the School of Arts" now. Mr W. D. Sorterfield is the Prob. Supt of the School Arts. Mr Holder is the Asst Supt and is now on leave on me. ~~[illegible]~~ (Vide last Civil List p 273) Mr Sorterfield appears to have been recently appointed. I should consider [illegible] had ~~[illegible]~~ any previous knowledge of the country ~~[illegible]~~ which would seem necessary to the production of a reliable monograph on the subject. If Mr Sorterfield has not the requisite qualifications perhaps Mr Thurston might take up the job.

The Govt of India invite attention to Mr Saunnan's monograph of Cotton Fabrics in Assam as a good example of the method in which such industrial surveys should be conducted.

The book is put up. It bears evidence to Mr Saunnans industry & diligence; but it is unlikely that few people will read the mass of matter he has [illegible]

a contrast please see Mr Thurston's monograph on "Woollen Fabrics" in the file below it would appear that Mr Porterfield knows enough Hindustani to instruct natives in the vernacular & that he is "equal to Havell in knowledge of art & its application to (madras) "industries."

On the other hand the Bombay Govt seems to have thought that Mr Porterfield was not competent to do much more than teach drawing to schoolboys.
