REVENUE BOARD OFFICE MADRAS

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Land Revenue).

Received No 683 Rev., 8-12-98.

Read the following letter from Harry. S. Mullins Esq, Special Forest Settlement officer, Malabar and South Canara Districts, 19th November '98, Reference C No 498/F.S of 98.

I have the honour to call your attention to the fact that the Sec: 16 notification of Block No 39, Bindugalpare, appeared in the Fort St: George Gazette 4th October '98 which reached this office on the 9th October. The necessary notification was sent to the District Press on the 10th idem, appearing in that journal's issue of 5th November. The copies thereof for posting in the adjoining villages were received by me in camp yesterday and were sent out at once, but, I am afraid, will not be posted in time near the reserve as the date from which Government decide that reservation shall take place has been fixed as 1st December, only 10 days hence.

2. I request that in future, for South Canara, 3 months may be allowed me for the publication of the Sec: 16 notification between the issue of the notification under that section in the Fort St: George Gazette and the date of such reservation, as I find I can barely

Resolution

Recorded with the remark that in submitting final notifications relating to the South Canara District, the Government will be requested to fix the date of reservation so as to allow a margin of three months from the probable date of appearance of the notifications in the Fort St. George Gazette
