stating that the names of gentlemen to give evidence before the Indian Famine Commission will be reported on the 3rd February.

30-1-98.

To

The Honorary Secretaries,
I.F.C.R.F., Madras.

Gentlemen,

With reference to your communication about the Famine Commission I beg to state that the Rev:W.H.Campbell, Jammalmadugu, is willing to send written notes of evidence but feels unable to attend the Commission either at Madras or at Bellary to give oral evidence. The Reverend gentleman was written to with the approval of the Committee.

M.R.Ry.C.RamachandraRao Garu B.A., B.L., is also willing to give evidence but he says he will be prepared to attend at Bellary. As his consent has been received just now, I have not yet had time to get his name approved by the Committee. I am sending his name round among the members of the Executive Committee and very probably his selection will be approved. As I will not be in a position to get the approval of the entire Committee before tomorrow, I write this note in advance.

As regards the name of the Honorary Secretary, Cuddapah, called for, I beg to state that there are three Secretaries, Viz: (1) T. Ranga Rao, Deputy Collector,

(2) A.S. Vaithinatha Iyer, Head Master, and (3) myself.

If your intention was that the Secretaries should give evidence, as for myself, I feel rather diffident in taking upon myself such a serious task. I would rather I were excused. The first named gentleman is an official and the second is not in the station.

I am

Yours sincerely

S/d. T.M. Munisamy Iyer

Secretary.

Cuddapah. The Govt has already accepted, on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, the names of the Rev. Mr. H. Campbell of Cuddapah and Mr. T. M. Munisamy Aiyar, Secretary to the District Committee, as witnesses. And no further addition seems necessary.

Anantapur. The Committee recommended five names, one of whom, the Rev. Mr. T. M. Vre of Cooby, has already been selected as a witness. The place and date of his examination has however to be fixed. ^{Ten} ~~Seven~~ witnesses have already been selected to give evidence at Bellary where the Commission sits for two days, and as Mr. Mcintosh has intimated at "if possible, not more than six witnesses should be asked to attend on one day, and as the time fixed for Bellary is short, it is desirable that as few witnesses as possible should be ^{directed} ~~asked~~ to attend there", not more than two names can be added to the Bellary list. In Madras, the Commission sits six days, but up till now, only twenty witnesses have
