estimate of charges for 1899-1900 on account of clock
winding. In communicating the G. O. the Collectors concerned were requested to report whether the provision made by them was intended to meet the charges of any unexpired contracts or the cost of repairing clocks. In reply the Collectors state that the provision made by them was for meeting the cost of repairing clocks.

2. The Board resolves to record the Collector's report with the remark that the expenditure which is small may be met from savings under district contingencies and debited to "Repairs to furniture". True Extract

JANUARY.

Communicating to all Collectors Government Order, Financial, passing orders on the budget estimate for 1899-1900 under "3A. Land Revenue—Charges of District Administration, and 3C. Land Records and Agriculture—Revenue Inspectors."

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE).

Read—the following Government Order, No. 1180, Financial, dated 6th December 1898:—

Read—Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), No. 262, dated 30th September 1898.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting to Government the revised estimate for the current year and the budget estimate for 1899–1900 under “3A. Land Revenue—Charges of District Administration and Land Records and Agriculture—Revenue Inspectors.”

Order—No. 1180, Financial, dated 6th December 1898.

The estimates as shown in the appendix to these Proceedings are accepted, subject to the following remarks:—

(i) General Establishments—Salaries.—(a) The number against “Exchange compensation allowance” in the column 1899–1900 should be stated.

(b) The exchange compensation allowance payable during the third quarter of the current year should have been calculated at $6\frac{1}{3}\%$ per cent., the rate fixed for that quarter, and not at $7\frac{1}{2}\%$ per cent. of the salary as taken by the Board of Revenue. The provision under the revised estimate for the current year on this account will be reduced by Rs. 750.

(c) The deduction for probable savings under General Establishments will be raised by Rs. 4,000, having regard to the fact that the year 1897, which is one of the exceptional year with few furloughs.

(ii) Establishment—Orders are under issue relative to the appointment of additional officers and establishment to effect a speedy completion of the registration of janmam titles in Malabar. The requisite provision on this account will be made. A lump provision of Rs. 95 lakh will also be entered in the budget estimate for the ensuing year on account of the contemplated revision of the Tahsildars’ and Deputy Tahsildars’ establishments in the Presidency.

(iii) Supplies and Services.—The provision made in the budget estimate for the ensuing year on account of charges for the “Translation of Mahratta Paimash accounts” will be struck out. In 1897–98 the actual expenditure was only Rs. 6. If any charge on this account is likely to be incurred, a special application should, if necessary, be made to the Government for an allotment.

(iv) Contingencies.—(a) The provision made on account of clock-winding will be omitted with reference to the instructions in G.O., No. 1007, Financial, dated 3rd December 1897.

(b) The cost of lighting charges for Sub-Divisional Establishments will be limited to the sanctioned estimate for the current year. These charges should not be encouraged.

(c) The budget provision for the ensuing year in respect of certain items under this head will be reduced as shown below:—
