Resolution.

Mr. Calder, while acting as Assistant Commissioner, Bellary Sub-Division, in May last, was transferred to the Negapatam Sub-Division vice Mr. St. John who was granted six weeks' privilege leave. The latter officer's leave as well as Mr. Calder's transfer ^{were} subsequently cancelled (vide Government Order Mis. No. 2791, Revenue, dated 1st July 1898). Mr. Calder handed over charge of the Bellary Sub-Division on the forenoon of the 20th June 1898. The Board directed him by wire on the 23rd idem to await orders, as Mr. St. John's leave had been cancelled, and informed him by wire on the 25th idem that he had been posted to the Krishnagiri Circle. He, however, came to Madras where on arrival he said that the telegram regarding his posting had not reached him. On being informed of the facts, he proceeded to Krishnagiri and assumed charge of the Circle on the forenoon of the 4th July 1898. He thus took 14 days' joining time while he was entitled to only 11 days.

as shown in the margin. In these circumstances, the Board requests that Government will be pleased to extend his joining time by three days, under Article 198 of the Civil Service Regulations.

No 6352

Forwarded to Government with the remark that Mr. Calder's joining time may be extended under article 198 of the Civil Service Regulations if Government considers that such extension is in the interests of the State; but it would appear that if Mr. Calder had complied with the Board's instructions to await orders instead of coming to Madras he would have been able to join at Krishnagiri sooner than he did.
