stated that the total allotment

Rs.4000 for provincial expenditure in the various Provinces was sanctioned by the Government of India only for a period of five years from 1st April 91 on the understanding that the average annual expenditure in Madras ^{shown} ~~was~~ not exceed Rs.500. In submitting its estimate for 1896-97 the Board accordingly made no provision for that year. Before however final orders were passed on the Board's estimate it submitted the following telegram from the Reporter on economic Products.

"Mistake happened about provision of Rs.500 to meet expenses for Imperial Institute collections being limited to only five years. ^{No} ~~so~~ such limit is put
