Copy of G.O. No. 167 Revenue dated 15th January 1883:-

O R D E R :- The Government having occasion to believe that unnecessary irregularities sometimes occur in the attendance of Revenue officials at their offices, the Board will direct all heads of offices subordinate to it to make it a general rule to attend office, when residing at their ~~quarters~~ head-quarters, during the usual hours, viz. from 11 to 5 o'clock, unless it happens to be a holiday.

(True extract)

Sd/P.P. Hutchins,

Ag. Secretary to Government, R.D.

To the Board of Revenue.

The Hon'ble M.R.Ry. N. SUBBA RAO PANTULU:—

XXXI. (a) Is it a fact that even when they are at head-quarters, District Collectors in some districts do not attend office but transact business and dispose of appeals and other matters of judicial nature at their residence?

(b) Has this practice been brought to the notice of Government and does it meet with its approval?

(c) Will Government be pleased to state what instructions, if any, it has issued to District Collectors in the above matter and place the same on the table?

The Hon'ble Mr.

XXXI. (a) and (b) No such practice has come to the notice of the Government.

(c) It is a standing order that all public officers should, when at head-quarters, as a general rule, attend on office days from 11 A.M. to 5 P.M.
