From

T. HESKETH BIGGS ESQ.,

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.

SIR,

In returning herewith the papers received with your endorsement No.836, dated 27th February 1899 on Board's Proceedings (Separate Revenue) No.672, Mis., dated 17th February 1899 explaining to Government the circumstances under which Inspector Mr.Calder overstayed his joining time on his transfer to the Kistnagiri circle in June 1898, I have the honour to state Mr. Calder's case does not fall under article 198 of the Civil Service Regulations as he was not for the sake of public convenience or for the saving of public expense prevented from joining his appointment within the time allowed by the rules.

The period during which he overstayed his joining time can however be treated as Privilege Leave for which he was eligible.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Thos H. Biggs
Accountant-General.

Dated 17th February 1899.

Mis.No. 672.

Read Official Memorandum from Government, Revenue Department, No.25, dated 1st February 1899.

Resolution.

With reference to the Government Memorandum read above the Board begs to state that Inspector Mr. Calder called at its office on the 27th June 1898 during his joining time in respect of his original transfer from the Bellary to the Negapatam Sub-Division. He then learnt that his transfer to Negapatam had been cancelled and that he had been posted to the Krishnagiri Circle. He received on the same day, as already stated in his letter No.73, dated 19th December 1898, submitted with its Proceedings Mis.No.217, dated 20th January 1899, the Board's telegram on the subject which had been addressed to him at Bellary. He appears to have taken from the following date a second period of preparation time of three out of the six days which he considered himself entitled to under

C. no. 603

Article 204 of the Civil Service Regulations. This, of course, was inadmissible with reference to the ruling of the Government of India contained in its No.4795-P, dated 6th November 1896, which was communicated to the Board for the first time by the Accountant-General with his letter No.I.A.C.M/105, dated 13th August 1898. As Mr.Calder overstayed his joining time under a misapprehension of the rules the Board requests that the extension applied for may be granted. All officers of the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department have since been informed that Article 204 of the Civil Service Regulations does not entitle them to a second period of preparation time.

"With reference to Board's Proceedings No. 1102, dated 12th December 1898, I have the honour to state that, as far as I recollect, I mentioned to Mr. Brown that I intended going to Ranipeta for a day or two to get my things and hand over the house I had kept on as I was expecting to go back there and then on to Madras, but I regret to say I think I did not leave an address in the office.

I received the telegrams of the 23rd and 25th June both at the same time, which was at 2 P.M., on my return to the Hotel from the Board's office on the 27th".

"Mr. Calder, who was acting as Assistant Commissioner, Bellary Sub-Division, was relieved of charge of that Sub-Division on the forenoon of the 20th of June last. The Board directed him by wire on the 23rd idem to await orders as Mr. St. John's leave had been cancelled, and informed him by wire on the 25th idem that he had been posted to the Krishnagiri Circle. He, however, came to Madras on the 27th idem and informed the Assistant Secretary that the Board's telegrams had not reached him. He is now requested to report whether he left any address at Bellary on his departure from that station and when and where he actually received the telegrams in question. This information is urgently wanted in connection with the excess going time of three days taken by him on his transfer from Bellary to Krishnagiri."
