M. S. P.

Read letter from M.R.Ry.A.Krishnasami Aiyangar Aiyangar, Assistant Commissioner, Masulipatam Sub-Division, No.423, dated 1st February 1899, submitting as directed a bill for Rs.16-12-0, being the pay due to M. Ramasami Nayudu.

Resolution.

The Board begs to request that Government will be pleased to authorize the Accountant-General, under the latter part of Article 5 of the Civil Account Code, to admit the claim to arrears of pay from the 24th September to 30th November 1896 (Rs.33-8-7) of first grade Jemadar M. Ramasami Nayudu.

2. This individual who was an acting Sub-Inspector in the Krishnapatnam Circle was reverted to his permanent post of Jemadar, in the Central Division Deputy Commissioner's, Proceedings No.3529, dated 20th July 1896, for general neglect of duty. He was absent from duty from 26th June to 13th

September 1896, a portion of which period was spent in the hospital at Nellore under treatment. The question how this period was to be treated was under correspondence between the Inspector, Krishnapatnam Circle, and the Assistant Commissioner, Nellore Sub-Division for some time and it was finally disposed of in December 1896, the period of his absence which had been spent in the hospital being treated as sick leave and the rest as leave without allowances. On the return of the Jemadar to duty in the Krishnapatnam Circle on 14th September 1896, the Inspector directed him to join his permanent appointment in the Ennore Circle and subsequently made a reference to the Assistant Commissioner, Nellore Sub-Division, as to what should be done with him as there was no vacancy for him at Krishnapatnam. Thereupon the Jemadar was transferred to the Iskapalle Circle. In the meantime, he ^{had} joined the Ennore Circle on 24th September 1896 and continued to do duty there ~~from~~ ^{till} the 15th October 1896. On receipt of the order transferring him to the Iskapalle Circle the Jemadar joined the latter Circle on 25th October 1896. The Inspector of this Circle drew the Jemadar's pay only from December 1896 and not from the 24th September 1896 for want of Last Pay certificate and Service Book. He asked the Inspector, Krishnapatnam, to send them but was informed that no orders had been received from the Assistant Commissioner, Nellore, regarding the Jemadar's leave. This matter was under correspondence for a long time and the Service Book and Last Pay certificate were not received by the Inspector, Iskapalle Circle, till the 4th March 1897. Even then the

Service Book was returned for further verification, and it was not finally received by him till the 23rd January 1898. The preparation of the supplemental bill was (quite unnecessarily) postponed, meanwhile, It was submitted at last by the Inspector to the Assistant Commissioner on 22nd March 1898, that is two months after the receipt back of the Service Book. As the Inspectors, Iskapalle and Krishnapatnam Circles, were found to be equally responsible for the scandalous delay that had been allowed to take place in the matter, the Board, on the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner, Northern Division, directed that the arrears of pay, amounting to Rs. 33-8-0, due to the Jemadar should be recovered from them in equal proportions. Messrs Story and Campbell accordingly remitted the amount in August 1898 to the Inspector, Narasaraopet Circle, under whom the Jemadar has latterly been employed. The Inspector disbursed the amount remitted by Mr. Story to the Jemadar and credited in the accounts the amount remitted by Mr. Campbell. Subsequently he ascertained that this amount should also be paid to the Jemadar and submitted through the Assistant Commissioner, Masulipatam Sub-Division, for the Board's sanction a refund voucher for the amount. The Inspector's action in paying a portion of the amount to the Jemadar without orders was irregular. He will be directed to recover the amount and credit it at once in the accounts and to draw on a supplemental bill the whole amount of arrears due to the Jemadar on receipt of the sanction of Government. He will be called upon to explain the delay of six months in bringing the fact of the recovery to the notice of the Board. The delays and carelessness that have characterized the whole dealing with this matter from the first are a disgrace to the officers concerned.
