Sir,

One Narayanasami Aiyar, brother of the karnam of -- Manali village, Tirutturaippundi Taluk and registered as his heir -- in the Division office before 1st January 1895, has put in a petition requesting to be informed whether he would be eligible for -- appearing for the Village Officers' Special Test without passing -- the Primary Examination.

2. Under the rules, permanent Village Officers appointed before 1st July 1898 as well as those whose names have been registered in the Division Office before 1st January 1895 stand on -- the same ground as regards exemption from the examination qualifications for holding a village office whether as Karnam or Monigar.

3. In the Notification in G.O. No. 18 Revenue dated 5th January 1899, communicated with Board's Proceedings No. 11, dated 11th January 1899, Government has permitted village officers, who were -- appointed before 1st July 1898 and who are under the existing rules exempt from passing both the Primary (school) examination and the -- Village Officers' Special Test, to appear for the latter test without passing the Primary examination and has also ruled that men -- acting as such on 1st July 1898 would be entitled to this privilege if confirmed in the arrangement in which they were acting on that date. It is therefore presumed that the privilege granted in the -- Government Order referred to above applies equally to individuals whose names have been registered as heirs prior to 1st January --- 1895 and that the petitioner being a registered heir may appear -- for the Village Officers' Special Test without passing Primary examination. I request the Board's orders as to whether my view is
