D. O. No. 22

Revenue Board Office, (Land Revenue).

MADRAS.

28 February 1899.

My dear Sir,

With reference to G.O. Misc. No. 83, Revenue, dated 24 instant in which the Board has been asked to nominate an officer for the charge of the Coorg forests, the Forest Member considers that Mr. Arthy, District Forest Officer, Bellary may be transferred to Coorg, and that Muttanna the officer coming from the Central Provinces, should take Mr. Arthy's place in Bellary, which is a small district well-suited for an Extra Deputy Conservator's charge and where the language of most of the taluks of Bellary is Canarese with which Muttanna as a Coorg must be familiar. I am to add that Mr. Arthy is willing to go to Coorg.

A draft minute of posting is enclosed in accordance with the above recommendation.

Yours sincerely,
Lancel Davidson
