READ—the following letter from the Collector of Bellary D. D. No. 602/P.19-3-99:—

With reference to your telegram enquiring whether Mr. Lever is required any longer for special plague duty, I have the honour to report as follows:—

Plague has practically ceased in Alur, and what little remains of it can be effectively done with by the Tahsildar and the local ambulance staff.

Hospet still continues to report 1 or 2 plague attacks daily, but the whole town has been vacated and the chief problem to deal with them is the prompt and effective disinfection of the empty houses. Mr. Lever's services will not be required for this purpose. If an European officer should be wanted hereafter for special plague duty, Mr. Moore, my Assistant Collector, will be available..

2. Mr. Lever is at present in charge of my Plague office at Bellary, and I should like him to remain so until I return to Head-quarters (i. e.) until the 28th of this month. He is in temporary charge of the Head-quarters Division in addition to doing plague work.

3. I see no necessity for retaining Mr. Lever on special plague duty after the 28th instt., as there will be practically no special duty for him to do. If he is to revert to ordinary duty, I would strongly urge that he be kept in Bellary as Treasury Deputy Collector, and allowed at the same time to retain his magisterial powers for use in case of emergency. It is of importance that there should always be a 1st class magistrate at Head-quarters, and I shall be obliged to be out a good deal during April and May on account of jamabundi..

In September last, an order was issued in the L & M Dept. placing Messrs J.T. Lever and C. Gahan, Dep? Collectors "on special duty for a period of six months for plague work in the districts of Bellary and Kurnool respectively". Mr Lever appears to have entered on his new duties on the 15th of Sept: and Mr Gahan on the 11th of October. The same period of deputation in Mr Lever's case thus expired ^{yester.} today and that in Mr Gahan's will unless specially extended expire on the 11th proximo.

2 It is not known whether the L & M contemplates extending the period of deputation of these Officers their return to the ordinary line of the service would affect the postings of D? Collectors
