The following letter from C. Benson Esq. Dy. Director of Land Records & Agriculture, Madras. No. 55 L.R., dated 11th March 1899:-

With reference to G.O. No. 4018 Mis., dated 8th October 1898, communicated in B.P. No. 6120 Mis., dated 11th October 1898, I have the honour to point out that the sanction for the retention of the establishment of the office of the Dy. Director, Land Records Branch, expires at the end of this month and to state that unless it is de

And Village Account on the system followed up to the end of 1896, I do not consider it necessary to retain the superior temporary establishment any longer. As regards the inferior servants, however, I request that permission may be granted to retain them, as noted on the margin, until the orders of Government are passed on the proposals submitted by the Board for the future work of the Agricultural Branch of the department.

Resolution

Submitted to Government for sanction.

2. The Board recommend that the menial staff referred to may be retained till ~~orders~~ orders are passed on the proposals in Board's Proceedings No: 49, dated 9th February 1899. The necessary provision exists in the budget estimates for 1900.
