My dear Sir,

Reference No 95, Forest, of 18-3-99
" 96 " " of 18-3-99
" 102 " " of 28-3-99

In the marginally noted Board's Proceedings the Board recommended for the favourable consideration of Government leave applications from Battie, Sireman and Lodge. I am to suggest that Latham who is now on special duty in South Canara may be posted to act as District Forest Officer of that division during Lodge's absence. The Forest Member intended to propose that Battie's place in South Canara should be taken for the present by Levt; but as the latter's services are still required in Kollur, he recommends that as on a previous occasion Battie may be permitted to hand over charge to his Senior Ranger as a temporary arrangement until the return of other officer for in July next. The work in Canara season of the year is very light, and suggested appears to be the most suitable arrangement that can be proposed.

The Forest Member considers that Fireman in North Malabar may be relieved by Mr. Moss who is at present Extra Assistant Conservator, Salem. Mr. Moss's senior, Mr. Farroll, is at present without a district charge; but it is proposed to send him to Trichinopoly as soon as Alwar Chetti's transfer to Cochin is sanctioned.

A draft minute of postings is enclosed in accordance with the above proposals.

Yours sincerely
Doree Doree
