The question proposed to be asked by
The Hon'ble M.R. Ry. C. VIJAYARAGHAVACHARIAR. at the meeting of the Revenue Department. held on the 7-4-28.

XXXI. (a) Is it a fact that the Government intends to introduce legislation regarding the question of the impartibility or otherwise of the zamindaris and other large estates? If so, will the Government be pleased to state the scope of the proposed legislation and whether it will invite public opinion on the subject before introducing a Bill in the Legislative Council?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to consider whether it is desirable to retain the law, as to the powers of alienation by the owners of impartible zamindaris as declared in the recent Pittapur zamindari case?

To Under Secretary.

As regards question (a), the Hon'ble Member may perhaps be referred to the answer to be given to a similar question by the Hon'ble Mr. Ry. P. Ratha, Sahbapati Pillai and informed that the Govt sees no ~~necessity~~ necessity to invite public criticism before introducing the Bill.

Flag A.

2. The ~~decision~~ law declared in the Pittapur case referred to in question (b) is that the holder of an impartible ~~estate~~ estate may alienate it by will to the same class.
