Read Question No. XIV proposed to be asked by the Honble P. Raturasabhapati Pillai at the meeting of the Legislative Council to be held on 7.4.99:-

XIV. Will Government be pleased to state whether the question of legislation in view to declaring ancient zamindaris impartible and inalienable is engaging its attention, and, if not, will it be pleased to consider the desirability of initiating legislation upon the subject, in order that ancient estates may be preserved from ruin and ruinous litigation?

To the Undersecretary.

The correspondence on the subject of the above question will be found in G.O. 508-09 29.6.97 and 52-53 and Govt of India 18.1.99 letter No. 398 of 20.3.99. and enclosures. It will be seen from the last of these papers that the Secretary of State has sanctioned the introduction of a Bill for declaring Ancient Zamindaris impartible and inalienable, reserving his opinion until he sees the Bill with its Schedule. These have yet to be prepared.

2. It is submitted that the first part of the Honble Member's question may be answered in presented. With the separately submitted for orders

He may then negative it, possibly the affirmative. This will render a reply to the second part of the question unnecessary.
S/H
