Resolution

The Collector of Madura forwards for information a copy of a programme of sales of Periyar-affected waste lands in eight villages of the Madura Taluk to be held between the 7th and 15th April 1899. These ^{Sales} have been ordered by the Collector with reference to Government Order No.1338 Mis. dated 17th March 1898 authorizing him to continue sales on the approved lines without applying for the special sanction of Government on each occasion. He will, however, be requested to postpone them until Government has passed orders on the report which will shortly be submitted by the Board in the Settlement Department with reference to Government Order No.4942 dated 14th December 1898.

Bri. Profs 1095 of 28-3-98 (Cuo 2198)

To the Under Secretary

In G.O. 1338 of 17-3-98 the Collector of Madura was authorized to Continue Sales of Waste lands under the Periyar Project without Special Sanction in each Case, and in G.O. 94 of 6-2-98, it was ordered that no block of land should be put up to auction until the means of irrigation have been provided. Now that the necessary means of irrigation have been provided in respect of certain blocks in 8 villages, the Collector advertised the sale thereof in the Dt. Gazette, to be held between the 7th and 15th April 1898, and forwarded a copy of the programme to the Board of Rev for information. The Board, however, decided that the sale ^{should} ~~may~~ postponed until final orders

orders have been passed by Govt on the memorial addressed to Govt by the Hon. V. V. Bhaskar Aiyar and others, which is now under reference to the Bd of Rev. The Bd's report is proposed to be submitted shortly.

In the memorial referred to
are asked for, and in the event of all or any of them being granted the lands may possibly be sold at a higher price. Possibly with this object in view the Board of Rev has directed the Collr. to defer the sale of the lands ^{in question} ~~advertisements~~.

It is submitted that the Board's order may be allowed to stand, and the B.P. merely recorded and a draft order is accordingly put up on the docket of the Current for appraisal.
