* Revised figure.

- (a) The increase is due to larger exportation of rice to Ceylon.
 (b) The increase is due to larger importation of railway materials.
 (c) The increase is due chiefly to larger exportation of paddy and rice to foreign countries and partly to larger importation of petroleum, coconut oil and cotton piece-goods.
 (d) The increase is due to larger exportation of paddy to Ceylon.
 (e) The decrease is due to smaller importation of cotton piece-goods, spirits and liqueurs, metals, arms and kerosine-oil and to smaller exportation of rice to Ceylon.
 (f) The decrease is due to smaller exportation of paddy and rice to Ceylon.
 (g) The decrease is due to smaller exportation of rice to Ceylon, partly counterbalanced by larger importation of kerosine-oil.
 (h) The decrease is due to smaller exportation of rice to Goa, partly counterbalanced by larger importation of wines and salted fish.
 (i) The decrease is due to smaller importation of spirits and liqueurs and cotton piece-goods.
 (j) The decrease is due to smaller importation of chillies, building and engineering materials and gingelly seeds from Yanam.
 (k) There is a decrease under export duty, due to smaller exportation of rice by sea from Pondicherry, partly counterbalanced by the increase in the importation of kerosine-oil, across the Pondicherry frontier, and in the realizations under miscellaneous revenue through the sale of certain confiscated jewels.
 (l) The decrease is due to smaller exportation of rice by sea from Karaikal.
