To
E. L. Elum Esquire
Collector
Ballary.

Sir,
It will be observed from G.O. Press No 176 dated 11th March 1899 that Government has ordered my retirement from the 1st instant. The Government were first pleased to grant me furlough for 6 months, but the leave had to be converted into one on private affairs as I had in the meanwhile completed my 55 years. The period of leave had further been restricted upto the end of March 1899, because the extension of one month and odd granted to me already expired with that date. I saw he granted extension of leave upto the 25th April 1899 (which completes my 6 months leave) provided the Government is pleased to sanction my retention upto that date. His course will not in any way interfere with the arrangements already made by Government.

but on the other hand will increase my pension by nearly a rupee per month to which I am entitled in fairness.

2 Under these circumstances I solicit the favour of your kindly addressing Government to sanction my retirement from the 26th ~~date~~, instead of from the 1st April 1899, and to grant me extension of leave up to that period.

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedient servant

Jagannathadas

your case in this regard will be of course of great importance to me in this regard.

I am, Sir, very much obliged to you for the favour of your kind addressing Government in this regard.
