Despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 9th March 1899, No. 5 Public (Records).

With reference to my despatch, No. 2 Public (Records) of 15th July 1897, I have to inform your Excellency that I have had under my consideration the question of the rate of exchange suitable for the conversion into English currency of the prices of books published by the several Governments in India.

2. The rate adopted in my despatch quoted above was 1*s*. 4*d*. per rupee ; but, on account of the rise in the rate of exchange, this rate has become inadequate, and I have accordingly decided that it shall be taken at 1*s*. 6*d*. from the date of this despatch.

3. This rule will apply only to books that may be published hereafter ; those already on sale, and any reprints of them, will retain their present English prices.

4. In printing the English prices on the title pages of publications, fractions of a penny should be treated as one penny ; and it is desirable that such prices as 3*s*. 11*d*. or 4*s*. 1*d*. should be avoided and an even price fixed.
